

Show Me

Show me how to be present
To give myself
Silently to be there - and to be true

Help me wholly to be my best Listening...
Aware of my part right now...
Keeping prayers and dreams alive...
Discovering what is and what can be

Help me to find courage
in ordinary faces and places
Content to live and
Let life to be its own testimony

Teach me again to play
To be like a child...
To laugh...
And care so deeply...
And have the nerve to show it.

Show me the small practical step,
To take...
... calmly, with faith
... with humility
Trusting you Lord
and being thankful for what you have provided

THEN...

Lord by your Power and Grace..
Let me wonder joyfully through life
Worshiping you
with friends and letters...
Wincing at history...
and..
Experiencing
More than it were fair for anyone to experience...
In one short lifetime.

Amen
